

The Essential Guide to A Coroner's Inquest

La Touche Training
the legal training consultants

This intensive one-day course is aimed at covering all aspects of an inquest including the Coroner's investigation, the inquest hearing and media coverage. It will assist all professionals who attend inquests, including healthcare professionals, prison officers, emergency service professionals, risk managers and lawyers in understanding the functions, powers and duties of the Coroner and the scope of the inquest. A lawyer will guide delegates on effective statement writing, preparation and presenting oral evidence at an inquest. Delegates will learn through realistic role-plays with discussion and feedback. They will gain confidence in their ability to prepare for and present their evidence at an inquest.

This is no mere lecture with hints and tips but a practical and experiential training day.
